

The do not call law should be allowed to be in place. How often do you receive calls from solicitors who don't want to get off the phone? All the time. I am tired of being rude to these people because they do not listen. When I move, my number will be unlisted so they cannot call me.